“The Heritage”

Balmoral was launched in 1949 in Southampton as Flagship of the Red Funnel Fleet. She was used on the Southampton to Cowes service and on coastal excursions, mostly around the Isle of Wight.

In 1969 she transferred to the Bristol Channel where she became Flagship of the famous P&A Campbell White Funnel Fleet. Her days under Campbells came to an end in 1980 when she was sold and had an unsuccessful period as a floating pub in Dundee. In 1985 Balmoral was bought by the Waverley Organisation and after major renovation triumphantly re-entered service in 1986 – consort to PS Waverley. In 2003 further major work was carried out with support from the Heritage Lottery Fund, which included new engines.

Sadly at the end of the 2012 sailing season Balmoral was withdrawn from service by the Waverley Steam Navigation Co. and laid up in Bristol.

Her future appeared uncertain until a small group of supporters and lovers of the ship got together with one ambition. To save her and return her to service. The MV Balmoral Fund was formed and after being awarded a Coastal Communities Grant in Feb 2015 she was bought for the principal sum of £1 from her previous owners.

“Against all odds” and with a massive effort by so many people she was brought back to service in the summer of 2015.

Help us raise the funds to keep Balmoral sailing

Balmoral is the last sea going motor ship capable of sailing around the UK, visiting its many and varied harbours, piers and ports. Keeping alive a 200 year old heritage of coastal day excursions.

She is without doubt a "National Treasure" as her membership of the UK National Historic Fleet signifies. Now sailing into her eighth decade and faced with ever growing running and maintenance costs, it is a constant challenge to keep our great ship sailing. She must meet (every year) stringent MCA (Maritime & Coastguard Agency) standards and H&S regulations.

All financial support is vital and greatly appreciated, no donation is too small (or indeed too large). Please help us if you can.

I would like to make a donation of £ and enclose a cheque made payable to the MV Balmoral Fund Ltd. Please send to:

Alternatively you can go to our web site at and hit the MyDonate button, there you can donate any amount you wish making a one off payment via your debit or credit card.

If you love Balmoral please consider her in your will. A bequest will help her continue sailing into the future. It would be hugely appreciated.

Thank You for your vital and much appreciated support
